

Evonik Fellowships

Science Centre World Summit Foundation

Initiator

The Evonik Fellowships are established in 2017 with a gift from the global company Evonik Industries AG with headquarters in Germany.

Objectives

The Evonik Fellowships support the participation in the Science Centre World Summit 2017 by individuals who are interested in digital innovation in educational surroundings, chemistry oriented educational initiatives and/or who bridge the gap between education and the business world.

The objectives of the Evonik Fellowships is to foster the development and use of innovative educational technologies.

Qualifications/preferences

Preference will be given to applicants...

- Whose field of profession and/or interest is in digital innovation in educational surroundings and/or chemistry oriented educational initiatives
- Who bridge the gap between educational initiatives and companies
- Whose institution is not normally in a position to afford to send a representative to the SCWS 2017
- Whose participation will benefit other science centres in addition to their own
- Who have limited opportunities to meet professionally with science centre colleagues

Selection

Applicants are reviewed and the Evonik Fellows are selected by a working group consisting of Mr. Mamoru Mohri, chair of the SCWS 2017, Mrs. Silvia Singer, chair of the SCWS 2020 and Mr. Erik Jacquemyn, chair of the SCWS 2014.

Number of Fellows that will be supported: 5
